Dear Ladies:

On behalf of the Living Word Christian Center Women's Ministry, I want to extend a personal invitation to you to come and be part of our 2009 Women's Conference.

Throughout the 25 years Pastor Bill Winston and I have been in ministry, many people have approached us asking that we mentor them. They see the fruit of faithfulness and diligence and desire to reproduce it in their personal lives and ministry.

Jesus taught that "it is enough that a disciple be as his master," and that is all we have sought to do - to learn of Him, submit to His teachings, align our lives and ministry to the scriptures, resist the temptations and distractions that hinder, and honor Him daily by fulfilling our assignment to win souls, make disciples, and expand His Kingdom to the uttermost parts of the earth.

Learning to seek God is perhaps the most important discipline of the believer, because without Him there is absolutely nothing we can do that will produce an eternal impact in the earth. Even King David acknowledged that whether there be wars surrounding him or rejection in his own household, the one thing he sought was God's face - His presence. It was there that he received strength, refreshing, strategy and resolve to push forward in faith until victory prevailed.

This year's conference is designed to ignite a deep desire and commitment in each attendee to pursue a deeper intimacy with the Father. Our speakers are refreshing and vibrant - a direct result of their intimate walk with God. If it's victory you are seeking, this is the conference for you!

I encourage you to come and refresh your mind and spirit with many women just like yourself, as we open our hearts, expecting to encounter the manifest presence of God.

"When you said
seek my face,
my heart said to you, Your face
Lord, will I seek."
